

Julie has over five years of experience working in office management and administrative support and has over a decade of experience working in customer service. Julie holds a degree in Environmental Studies and in Politics from the University of California, Santa Cruz. She maintains professional and open lines of communication with clients, partners and government agencies. She focuses on continuously improving the organization and efficiency of company projects.