

Sally has over ten years of CARB and customer service experience. She provides timely replies to customer inquiries and supports the field services team. Sally worked in the Compliance Assistance Program at the California Air Resources Board during 2007 to 2011 and holds a BS degree from California State University, Sacramento. She has held increasingly responsible positions in customer service and litigation support prior to joining CleanFleets.